VIDA IN WASHINGTON.

A letter from Acting Secretary of State F. P. Loomis informs Governor Carter that Henry Vida called at the department on his way to London and received all the papers necessary to the extradition of Henry K. Kapea, alias Herbert K. Kentwell, arrested in London for embezzlement committed in Honolulu, and had also been given the President's authorization to take Kapea into custody. On his arrival in London, Vida was instructed to present the papers to the American Ambassador, who would give all necessary instructions.

CAPTAIN HAMILTON'S SON.

Concerning the son of Capt. Hamlet of the U. S. R. C. Bear the Chronicle says: There is much interest in the information received through marriage cards yesterday of the approaching nuptials of Lieutenant Harry G. Hamilton, of the United States Revenue cutter service, who will claim for his bride on the evening of Wednesday, April 26, Miss Frances Hastings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Hastings, of Port Townsend, Wash.

DID NOT WANT THE COAL.

President J. A. Kennedy of the Inter-Island Steam Navigation Company states that the S. S. Olympia coal recently offered for sale with no bidders, was not boycotted. He had been requested by the owners of the cargo to make a bid to them in Seattle. He made a tender but it was lower than the upset price of $5 a ton. He not bid, for he did not consider the coal of the quality that he desired.

LOST HER ARM.

Coste Souza a young Portuguese girl about 18 years of age sustained a shocking accident at the Sanitary Steam Laundry yesterday afternoon. Her right arm was caught in one of the steam mangles and so badly crushed, that the arm had to be amputated at the shoulder. She was operated on at the Queen's Hospital.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR
AT EASTER SERVICE

HONOLULU COMMANDERY WILL ATTEND ST. ANDREW'S CATHEDRAL IN A BODY TOMORROW.

Honolulu Commandery, Knights Templar, will attend Easter services tomorrow evening at St. Andrew's Cathedral. The services will be at 7:00 o'clock. Seats will be reserved for the Knights. Bishop Hestrick will preach the sermon.

The following are other Easter Sunday services at St. Andrew's: The services in English will be at 6, 7 and 11 a. m. The Bishop will preach at the 11 o'clock service. The United Sunday School and Children's Service will be held at 3:00 p. m.

At the 11 o'clock service the music will include the Kyrie, Credo, Sanctus and Gloria in Excelsis by Garratt and the anthem "Lo Ye Despoilers." In the evening the service sung will be by Field.

EASTER MUSIC AT ST. CLEMENT'S.

Morning Service:
Carol—"The Golden Morn"
Te Deum in F—Dressler.
Jubilate in C—Verrich.
Anthem—"They Have Taken Away My Lord"
My Lord
Communion Service—Stainer.
Evening Service—Katie.
Anthem—"He Is Risen."

CENTRAL UNION CHURCH.

11 a. m. Rev. William Morris Kincaid. D. D. will preach, subject, "The Immortal Life." There will be special Easter music given by the choir. Mrs. Bruce Mackall will sing a solo entitled, "The King of Glory" by Coombs. The Easter morning offering will be sent to the American Board for Foreign Missions.

6:30 p. m. There will be a union young people's meeting held in the Christian church.

7:30 p. m. A Union Gospel Easter service will be held in the Central Union church, special singing will be given. Everybody welcome.

METHODIST CHURCH.

The pastor of the First M. E. Church, John W. Wadman, will occupy his own pulpit tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock and speak on the subject of "An Open Grave." There will be appropriate music for Easter morning. Strangers cordially made welcome.

CHURCH DEDICATION.

Tomorrow afternoon, at 2:30, the new Japanese M. E. Church on River street, between Beretania and Kukui, will be dedicated. Rev. John W. Wadman, Superintendent of Methodist Mission, will be in charge, assisted by native pastors. All friends interested will be warmly welcomed.

A SUNRISE
PRAYER MEETING

There will be no afternoon meeting in Association Hall on Easter Sunday, but that does not mean that the Y. M. C. A. is not holding any service. It begins the day at 7 o'clock, 498 ft. above sea level with a Young People's Praise Service at the summit of Punchbowl. This is a mixed meeting and everybody is invited. Everyone may take his own route, but probably the largest number will get together at Englefield at 6:35 and go up the Alapai street trail.

At 10 o'clock the Association holds its regular service for car men, at the Employees' Club House.

At two in the afternoon a full and interesting program is provided for all the prisoners at Oahu Penitentiary.

YOU NEVER KNOW YOUR LUCK

You'll know it, however, if you fail to get a ticket for the Elks' minstrel show which occurs on Thursday and Saturday evenings next. It's surprising the rapidly with which those pasteboards are flocking out of Wall, Nichols & Co's store. Humming bird's wings on toast at Ah Pa's 15 cent—a throw hawkey wouldn't vanish quicker. Better buy now and not trust to luck!

MAHUKA'S CASE.

Attorney General Andrews, for Superintendent of Public Works Holloway and Road Supervisor Johnson, has filed an answer, a brief and a motion to dissolve the temporary injunction obtained by William Mahuka. It is shown that no attempt has been made to take a strip of land from the petitioner for the extension of Kukui street but a government surveyor has done some work on the premises in accordance with law.

DIVORCES GRANTED.

Judge Lindsay granted a decree of divorce to Lydia P. Kukailani against David Kukailani on the ground of desertion. Judge Lindsay also granted a divorce to Petrus G. W. Pahu against Catharine Moku Pahu on the ground of desertion.
